

SHOES AND BAGGAGE

the cell presents

SHOES AND BAGGAGE

Written and Performed by CHERYL STERN

Music by TOM KOCHAN

Directed by JOE BARROS

Developed with KIRA SIMRING

Production Stage Manager: JENNIFER DELAC

Lighting/Projection Designer: NATHAN W. SCHEUER

Sound Designer: M. FLORIAN STAAB

Costume Designer: SIENA ZOE ALLEN

Musical Director: JOHN DIPINTO

Orchestrations: TOM KOCHAN

Associate Director: BRIAN REAGER

Assistant Stage Manager: KAYLA SANTOS

Technical Director: GERTJAN HOUBEN

Production Manager: MACKENZIE MEEKS

Assistant Music Director: CHRISTOPHER ZANDER

Audio A1: ALEXANDRIA BOTTIGLIERI

Keyboard II & Guitar: THOMAS MONKELL

Percussion: GREGORY LANDES

Opening video by DAVID PERLMAN

Logo Design by ROBERT POSTOTNIK

Development Liaison: MEGAN LOUGHRAN

Development Liaison Associate: SAM STRUM

House Manager: SHANE DRISCOLL

Press Representation: RON LASKO/SPIN CYCLE

the cell

338 West 23rd Street (between Eighth & Ninth Avenues)

May 5 – June 3, 2016

Veteran Broadway actress Cheryl Stern is battling a life-long addiction. Bad for her, good for you because she has created an entertaining and amusing journey through her endless pursuit of material goods in SHOES AND BAGGAGE. Amidst a flurry of sales, brand names, designer clothing, and the eternal temptation of shoes, the lively redhead propels us along her acting career with a few childhood memories thrown in for good measure. In a high-energy performance she dances, she sings to music by Drama Desk nominee Tom Kochan, and she vamps and models. And if that's not enough, she portrays over 20 characters making each one her own and sharing the eccentricities with an enthralled audience. SHOES AND BAGGAGE is a wild and wacky ride that examines the underlying reasons we are obsessed with the retail world, and Cheryl Stern makes it fascinating and fun. An enjoyable time is had by all.